

Student Ambassador Program

EARN A $500 SCHOLARSHIP PER SEMESTER!

Meet the Ambassadors!

Joey Sin (left), a sophomore majoring in psychology, and Alondra Martinez, a junior majoring in philosophy, are excited to meet other students interested in Asian American Studies.

The UH Asian American Studies Center is recruiting undergraduate students to serve as ambassadors! Selected students will help promote Asian American Studies on campus, assisting with student recruitment, event promotion, social media and more! Ambassadors will earn a scholarship while developing important communication and cultural skills to bolster their resume.

Requirements to Apply

- Enrolled as an undergraduate student at UH
- GPA of 2.7 or higher
- Must minor in Asian American Studies or have taken/plan to take AAS courses

Benefits for Ambassadors

- Receive a scholarship of $500 per semester
- Strengthen your organizational, social and communication skills
- Enhance your global leadership abilities
- Bolster your resume for future jobs

How to Apply

Find the application at uh.edu/aasc.

Asian American Studies Center
UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT AMBASSADOR APPLICATION

SCHOLARSHIP: $500 Per Semester

The purpose of the Asian American Studies Center's (AASC) Undergraduate Student Ambassador Program is to promote Asian American Studies (AAS), offer great opportunities for students to develop their social and cultural communication skills, enhance their global leadership abilities, and provide each Ambassador a $500 scholarship per semester.

Ambassadors will work with the Asian American Studies Center's faculty and staff to:

- Recruit students for the AAS minor through various social media platforms;
- Utilize social media to raise awareness about AAS courses and their significance;
- Effectively communicate and promote public lectures, social events, cultural activities, and research projects through various channels on campus;
- Represent the center by engaging with student organization leaders and members (i.e., attending meetings, distributing flyers, sharing information about AASC activities); and
- Meet with AASC faculty and staff monthly to coordinate communication efforts.

Benefits for Ambassadors

- Provides scholarship opportunities
- Allows students to build their resume
- Strengthens students' organizational and social and cultural communication skills
- Enhances students' global leadership abilities

Student Requirements

- Must have a GPA of 2.7 or higher
- Must have taken or plan to take AAS courses or minor in AAS

Student Name:		PeopleSoft Number:
Email:		Telephone:
Classification: <input type="checkbox"/> Freshman <input type="checkbox"/> Sophomore <input type="checkbox"/> Junior <input type="checkbox"/> Senior		GPA:
Major:		Minor:
AAS Courses Taken or Will Take:

Asian American Studies Center
UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

Please take a few minutes to respond to the following questions:

Tell us about your personal and/or academic interests.

Why are you interested in participating in the program?

What do you hope to get out of this program?

What experiences and skills do you bring to the program?

Is there anything else you would like us to know about you?

Signature or e-signature:

Date:

Please email your completed application to egonzales@central.uh.edu.