

“Muslims, Jews, Frenchmen:
A History of Complex Encounters”

Dr. Ethan Katz
Assistant Professor of History
University of Cincinnati

Monday, February 1
2-4 pm

Elizabeth D.
Rockwell Pavilion,
UH M.D. Anderson
Library

Dr. Katz is the author of The Burdens of Brotherhood: Jews and Muslims from North Africa to France.

Recently awarded a National Jewish Book Award, Burdens of Brotherhood examines the history of social, cultural, and political relations between Jews and Muslims in France and much of the Francophone world from the First World War to the present.

Through his work, Dr. Katz tells the story of the shifting meaning of French nationhood across the twentieth century, and frames France in the twentieth century as an increasingly Mediterranean space.

This event is made possible with support from the UH Center for Public History Lecture Series and the UH Middle Eastern Studies Program.

Questions can be directed to Dr. Mark Goldberg at magoldberg@uh.edu

The event is free and open to the public