

What was cinema in colonial East Asia? This talk introduces early film culture in Taiwan and explores the intermediality between cinema and other popular media. Some rare images and archival materials concerning colonial magic lantern shows, talkies, and eight-millimeter films will be presented during the talk.

EARLY CINEMA IN COLONIAL TAIWAN

MAR 4, 2022
2-4PM

MULTIPURPOSE ROOM, THE QUAD

Food, games and prizes!

FEATURING:

LAURA JO-HAN WEN

RANDOLPH-MACON
COLLEGE

Speaker: Dr. Laura Jo-Han Wen

Laura Jo-Han Wen is Assistant Professor of Chinese Studies at Randolph-Macon College. She teaches courses on Sinophone literature, cinema, popular culture, and mandarin Chinese. Her research focuses on media archaeology, colonial early cinema, and the visual representation of historical memories.