- Describe your research interests. How, specifically, do your research interests engage women's, gender, or sexuality issues and/or feminist scholarship, theory, or methodology?
- What courses if any do you teach that focus primarily on WGSS issues? How do you incorporate WGSS issues into other courses that you teach? Are there any WGSS courses that you would be interested in developing/teaching in the future? (Please include both undergraduate and graduate courses, if applicable.)
- If you have had any previous involvement with WGSS (at UH, at other institutions, in professional organizations, in the community), please describe briefly.
- Are there particular ways in which you would like to be involved with WGSS at UH (e.g., cross-listing courses, serving on committees, advising students, participating in or facilitating faculty seminars)?
