

Alexander W. Obregon

Alexander W. Obregon is the Special Projects Coordinator in the Executive Division of the Office of the Houston City Controller, which superintends the fiscal affairs of the City. Alexander began his tenure with the City when Controller Ronald C. Green assumed office in January 2010.

Alexander currently serves on the Board of Directors for Skills 4 Living, Inc., a Houston area non-profit agency dedicated to promoting financial education. He also serves as an Advisory Council Member to the FDIC's Alliance for Economic Inclusion Houston Region. Alexander previously served as Chair of the city's Bank on Houston Financial Education Committee, overseeing financial education initiatives.

Alexander was awarded the Alliance for Economic Inclusion Pioneer Award for his work in the field of financial education and has received the U.S. President's Volunteer Service Award. He is also a graduate of the Greater Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce Foundation Emerging Leaders Institute.

Alexander holds a Bachelor of Science in psychology from the University of Houston, where he served as Speaker of the Student Body Senate and participated in the Hobby Center for Public Policy's CHIP Internship program. He also received a Master of Business Administration from University of Houston's Bauer College of Business, where he was a Global Energy Management Institute scholar.